This book is about a man named Alif. Alif is a simple man who lives his life shielding clients on the internet. These clients could be terrorist or anyone who wants things protected very well by Alif. Alif isn't even his real name.

Summary - Alif the Unseen
In Alif The Unseen Wilson shows us the many ways the unseen exists around us and how easy it is to learn how to see. Everybody has his or her blind spots, people or things we choose not to see for one reason or another. Maybe if we open our eyes a little bit wider we’ll find we have more in common with each other than we might have thought.
