International Marketing presents an innovative, integrated approach to the course, in which marketing concepts are explored in depth within the international context. The authors identify five key factors that impact any international marketing venture-culture, language, political/legal systems, economic systems, and technological/operational differences-and discuss them in relation to the core marketing concepts of markets, products, pricing, distribution (place), and promotion. Uniquely, the book provides discussions of sustainability and "bottom of the pyramid" concepts within each chapter, and is richly illustrated with examples from both multinational companies as well as smaller local concerns. Setting the path for the future direction of this course, the authors provide instructors and students with the first truly international marketing textbook.

The fourth edition of 'International Marketing' provides a complete introduction to international marketing in the 21st century.

Professional Selling: Types, Approaches and Management is an essential guide that covers the role of professional selling as part of an organization's integrated marketing system. It presents, in detail, the various types of professional selling functions as well as the process of presenting a product to a customer and closing a sale. It describes how a professional salesperson should follow up after a sale in order to maintain customer satisfaction and develop a long-term relationship. This professional reference goes global, too, by discussing sales and negotiation activities in different cultures. The book does more than discuss the steps of selling; it also includes comprehensive information about what it takes to manage key accounts as well as salespeople, especially recruitment, training, compensation, and evaluation. It features exercises, cases, and role-playing to achieve its objectives. Salespeople and managers alike will benefit from the knowledge and guidance provided in Professional Selling: Types, Approaches and Management.
