Strategic visioning is a process in which community members discuss past and present community issues, determine positive qualities and assets, identify future goals, design a plan for the community, carry out a series of actions, and evaluate the outcomes. A strategic visioning process provides a framework to identify community core values and assets, describe overall goals, and determine specific objectives and strategies that assist with community decision making.

Strategic Visioning for Community Development
If visioning is a path rather than a moment it is anything but a straight deductive, linear process to a certain outcome. Instead it is a process that ebbs and flows, that often feels like two steps forward and one step back, sometimes even more steps back. Other times they are jumps rather than steps into a different direction altogether.
