Final Fantasy VIII employed a 'magic junction' and 'draw' system. Each character could choose the "Draw" command on their turn which allowed them to draw magic out of an enemy. Each time they would Draw magic they would receive between 1 and 9 of that magic spell until they had stockpiled 99 at which point no further magic could be drawn.

Good if you read ahead of where you're going so you know mostly what to do but useless if you want a comprehensive guide. It's cons is that it doesn't show you where every treasure is, how to get it or if you can't get it again later in the game, in addition to a lackluster area map and monster strategy.

Monster is a section from the Final Fantasy VIII Ultimania. It is the sixth chapter of the book and it details the enemies of Final Fantasy VIII. It gives various stats, descriptions, elemental properties, status resistances and spells that can be drawn. Since the Ultimania is a Japanese only publication, the enemy names are written in Japanese. To see the enemies Japanese names, they can be ...
