My godmother was reading her copy a few weeks ago and reccomended it too me, due to me reading Holly Archers when that one was released. I must say this one was so gripping from the start. The reason I didn't give it 5* is because I believe the true names and addresses/areas of where this all took place should be told out loud.

I've been getting closer and closer to ctb and I've had horrendous nightmares. One was similar to this. I didn't write it down so I don't remember many details but someone found out about my ctb plan and took my SN, and I basically lost all chance to follow through with ctb in any way. There was no way out. Woke up so terrified.
