The Talisman Ring

The Talisman Ring is a historical romance novel by Georgette Heyer, first published in 1936. Set in 1793, in the Georgian era, the action takes place in Sussex, where Heyer was born. It is one of Heyer's novels that are set in the late 18th century, and it follows the adventures of Sir Tristram Shield and his insouciant French cousin, Eustacie de Vauban. They are charged with the responsibility of caring for the heir to the Lavenham family, Ludovic, who is on the run after his father's death.

The Talisman Ring is one of the most popular of Heyer's early novels, and it has been praised for its humor and wit. It tells the story of a spirited Frenchwoman who is determined to help the heir to the Lavenham family, Ludovic, who is on the run after his father's death. The novel is set in the Georgian era and follows the adventures of Sir Tristram Shield and his insouciant French cousin, Eustacie de Vauban, as they try to keep Ludovic from being caught by the authorities.

The Talisman Ring is a keeper for Regency Romance readers and readers who enjoy humor and subtle wit. It is splendid reading!